TRAVEL EVENTS

Players are selected from the BLE summer camps to form teams that travel to Las Vegas and Phoenix (during MLB Spring Training) to take part in highly competitive tournaments. Prior to the tournaments, mini-camps are provided to build team chemistry and fine tune the players with a coaching staff that is second to none.

Milwaukee Brewers Scout Team: BLE Camps are used as identifiers for potential players to represent the Milwaukee Brewers organization at Perfect Game events and other elite Showcases - A great opportunity to be seen by MLB scouts and Collegiate Recruiters.

CAMP LIFE

Experienced players and coaches make up the staff of counselors and instructors at the Big League Experience Baseball Camp. They give each camper individual attention, outstanding mentorship and skills training. The camp atmosphere is fun, spirited and professional. Players are developed through positive reinforcement and rewarding, enjoyable experiences in the spirit of competition.

Objectives:

- Teach leadership through experience
- Teach the value of good team sportsmanship
- Focus on the assessment and development of each individual player
- Give players an improved sense of self-discipline and ability to self-assess
- Share a love of baseball

Each day of camp is broken into sessions of Instruction, Game Time and Supervised Recreation. Instruction includes drills, positional work, defensive/offensive strategy and video analysis.

Each afternoon the players compete in throwing, base running, hitting, pitching and fielding segments. The campers form teams that participate in games throughout the week and earn "team runs" for good sportsmanship, behavior and camp activities. Each week culminates with playoffs, top players competing in the Superstars race, the Home Run Derby and an awards/recognition ceremony.

All players leave with individual written reports/evaluations from their instructors.

Former Canadian Olympic Team Coach and eleven year MLB scout, Marty Lehn and former Boston Red Sox player, Colin Dixon, head up the camp.

Marty is heading into his 11th year of scouting, currently with the Milwaukee Brewers, and has been part of the Canadian National team since 1991 and Team British Columbia since 1989. The summer of 2004 proved to be a most memorable one for Marty as he was on the coaching staff of the Canadian Olympic Team that finished fourth at the 2004 Olympic Games held in Athens, Greece. In 2005, Marty guided Team B.C. to a Silver Medal and to a Gold in 2001 at the Canada Games. He was also a coach of the 1999 Canadian team that won bronze at the Pan American Games. In 1998, he was named Canadian Coach of the year, and in 1997 B.C. Coach of the Year. He has been a guest coach with the Toronto Blue Jays and Chicago White Sox organizations. Marty is a NCCP Level IV coach that leads a number of coach and player clinics throughout the year. Marty played and coached at Southeastern Louisiana University where he completed a Masters Degree in Exercise Science and Health Promotion.

Colin was drafted by the Boston Red Sox in 1989 and played for eight years within the organization up to the AAA level. He then signed with the Colorado Rockies organization as a free agent. He was a member of the 1999 Team Canada that won the bronze medal at the Pan Am Games in Winnipeg, Manitoba. In 1998, he was named to America's All-Star team at the America's Cup Challenge and participated at the World Championships held in Italy later that year. Colin attended Southeastern Louisiana University where he led the team in a number of offensive categories and received All-American status. He was the youngest player to play for Canada's National and Jr. National teams at age 17 and is a product of B.C.'s elite development programs.

FACILITIES

OLIVER, B.C.

Camp staff and the Oliver community work together to maintain some of the best fields and facilities in the Pacific Northwest. The camp facilities include three 90'/80'/70' and four 60' baseball diamonds maintained to exceptional standards. The players are housed in the Oliver Arena adjacent to the baseball diamonds and the community swimming pool.

KAMLOOPS, B.C.

Located on the north bank of the Thompson River, McArthur Island Baseball Complex is the home of Big League Experience's Classic Tournaments.

The 51 ha. (126 ac.) island is lavishly equipped with a baseball stadium, numerous playing fields, a golf course, indoor sports centre, bicycle paths and many other amenities for the family to enjoy.

Back, back, back, back... Gone! Leif Friedrich launches one during the Derby!

STAFF EXPERIENCE

The Coaching/Counseling staff is second to none, boasting former Major Leaguers as well as Canadian and US National Team members along with active scouts and top University coaches and players. Campers are supervised at all times by the staff. The Big League Experience Camp program, facilities and staff provide the best baseball environment Canada has to offer - truly in a league of its own.

HEART OF THE OKANAGAN

The Big League Experience Baseball Camps/ Tournaments are located in Oliver B.C. "The Heart of the Okanagan" and in Kamloops, B.C. "The Tournament Capital of Canada". The hot and dry climate is ideal for baseball camps and tournaments as well as vacationing. Both areas are surrounded by many family attractions to enjoy while the ballplayers are at camp.
